The Red Fan and the Blue Fan

Clare Lee 글 · 김미아 그림 · Isaac Durst, Cindy Lee 감수

Once upon a time,
there lived a man.
His name was Mr. Kim.
He was lazy.
He didn't like working.
One day, he took a walk.
Then he found something on the street.

“What is that?”

It was a pouch.

Mr. Kim picked up the pouch.
He found two fans inside
the pouch.
One was red, and the other was blue.

“Lucky me!”

He used the red fan.
Then his nose became longer.
He used the blue fan.
Then his nose became shorter.

“These are magic fans!”

Mr. Kim was very glad to get them.
He brought them to his house.
He showed the fans to his mother.

“The red fan makes my nose longer.
And the blue fan makes my nose
shorter.”

He made his nose longer and shorter with the fans.
His mother was surprised.

“How can I get rich with these fans?”

Mr. Kim thought about it all day long.

“I have a good idea!”

There was a rich old man
in town.

Mr. Kim heard about the rich man’s birthday party.
So he went to the rich man’s house.

There were many visitors there.
Mr. Kim went to the rich man.

“You look hot.

May I cool you down with my fan?”

“Okay. Thank you.”

Mr. Kim used his red fan.

Then the rich man’s nose became longer.

But the rich man didn’t know that.

Mr. Kim slipped out of the house.

“Oh, my god!
My nose is longer!”

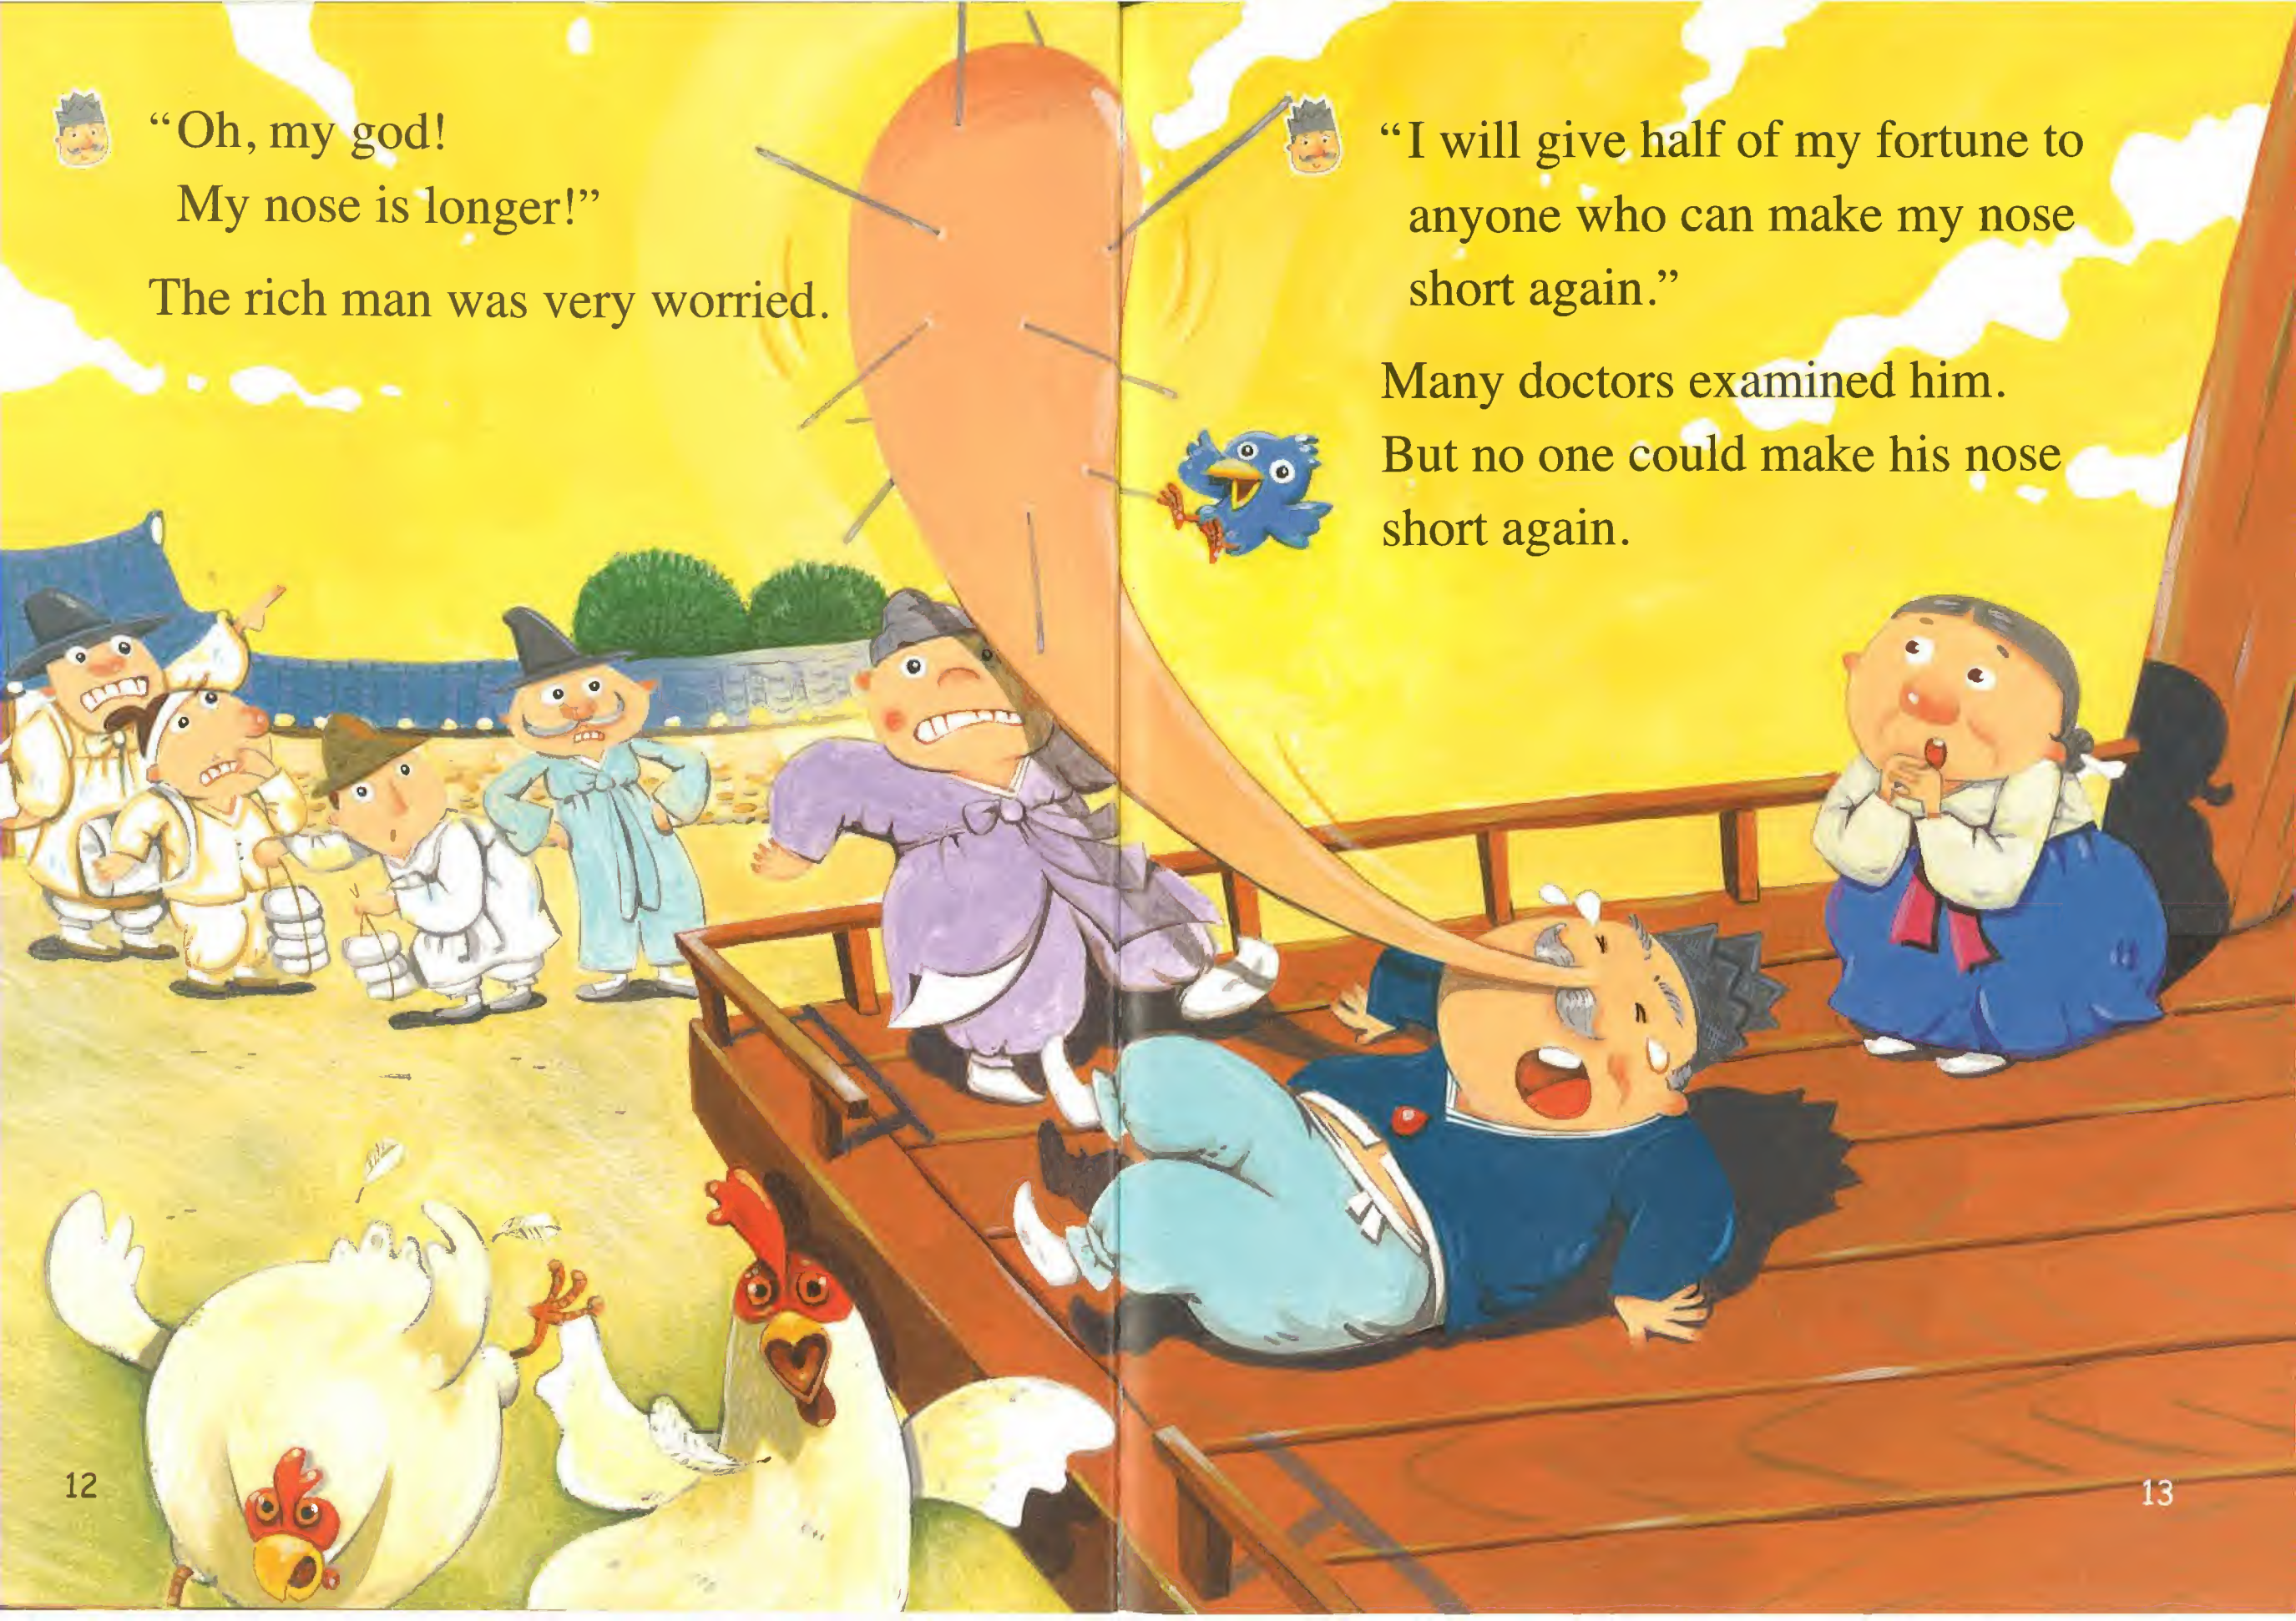

The rich man was very worried.

“I will give half of my fortune to anyone who can make my nose
short again.”

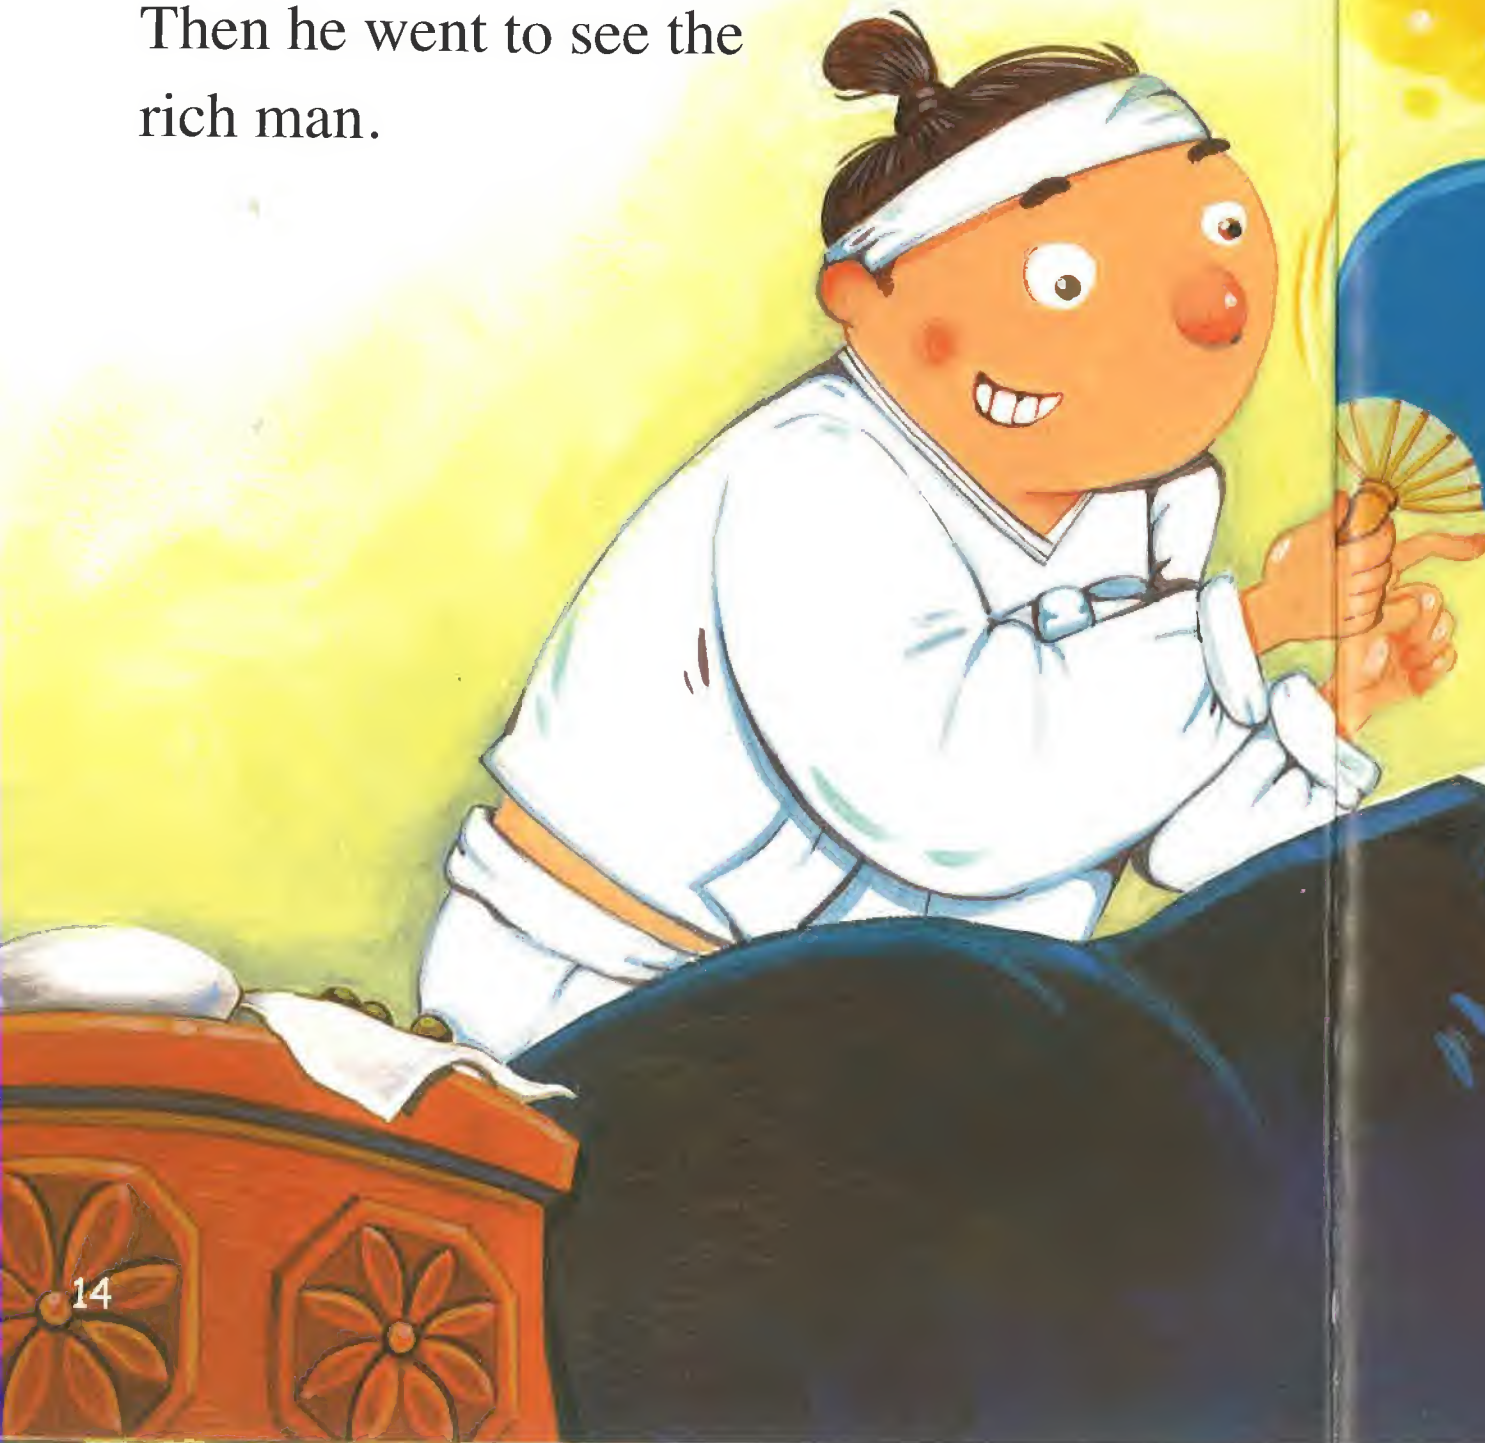

Many doctors examined him.

But no one could make his nose
short again.

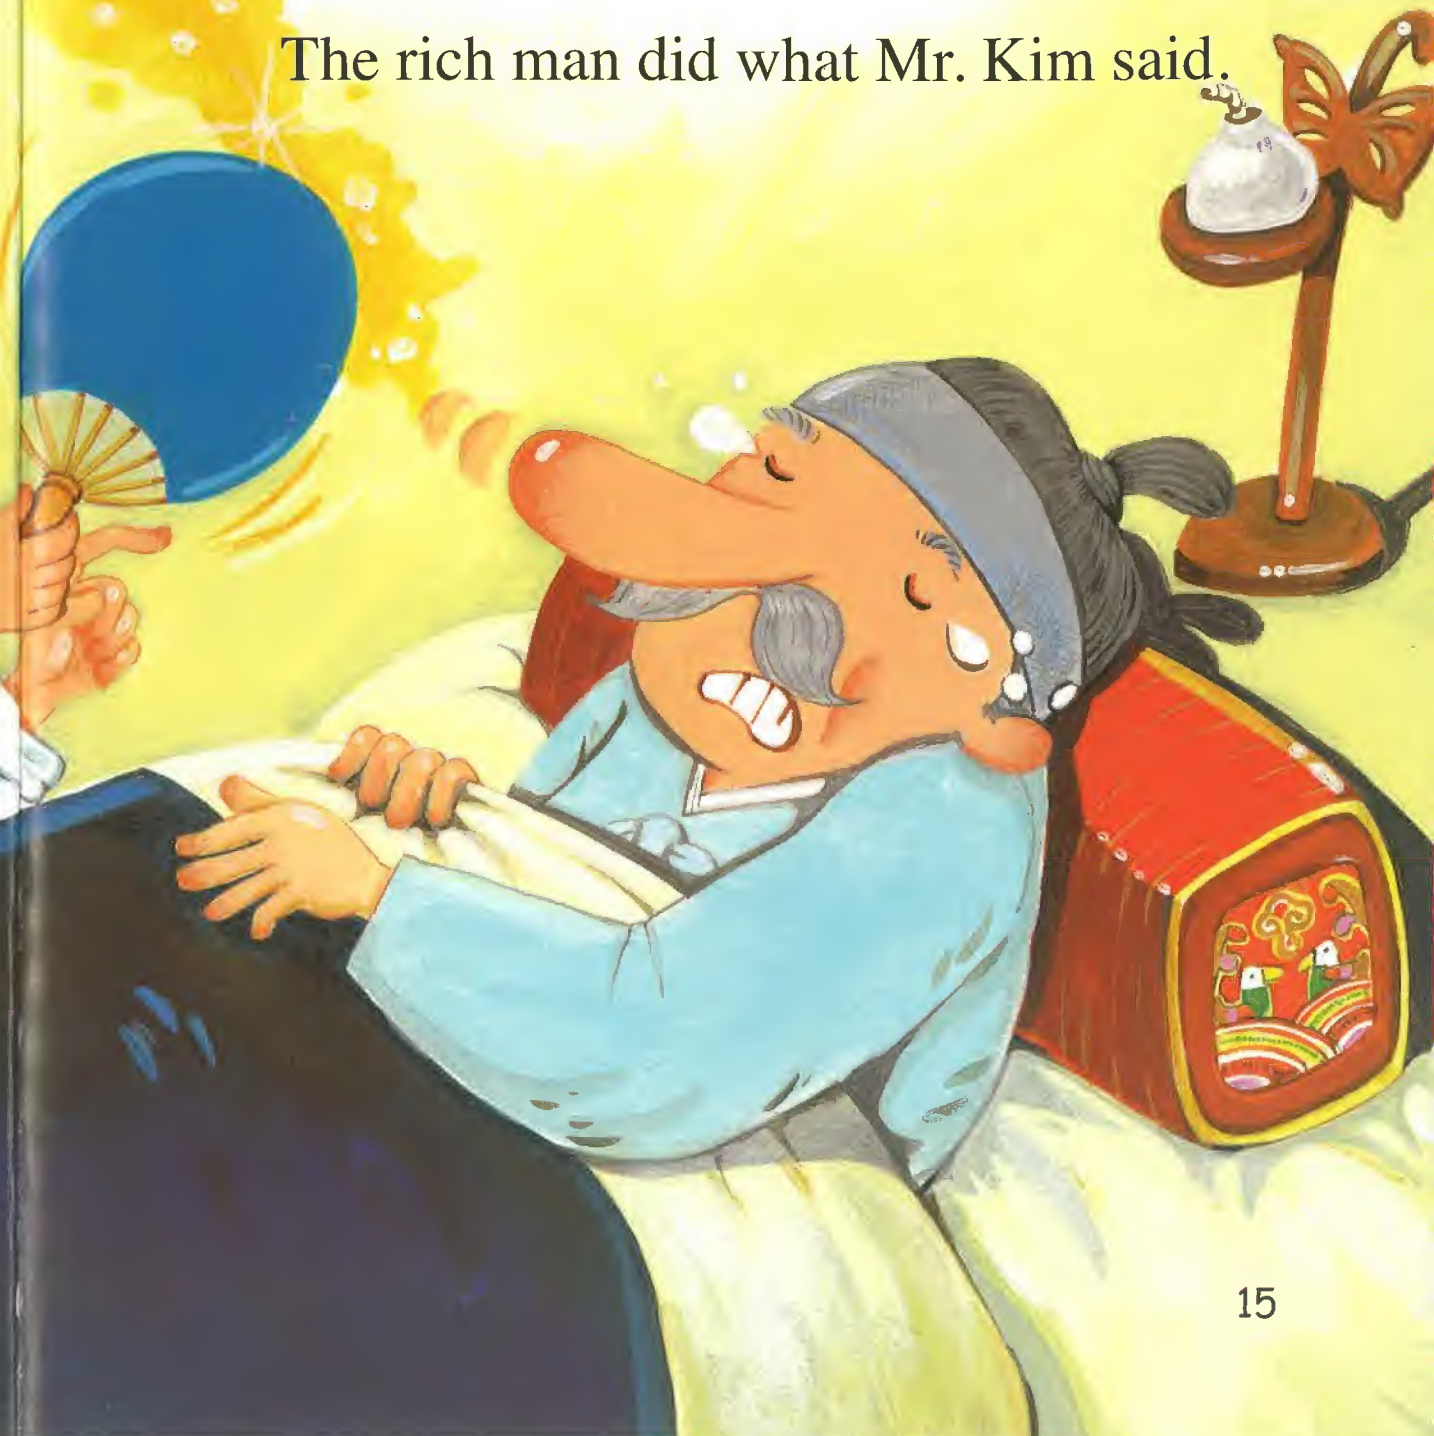

The rich man could not eat anything.
He got sick and stayed in bed.
Mr. Kim made some fake pills.
Then he went to see the rich man.

“I can cure you.
Take these pills and close your eyes.
Then your nose will become shorter.”

The rich man did what Mr. Kim said.

Mr. Kim secretly used the blue fan.
Then the rich man's nose became shorter.

"Now open your eyes.

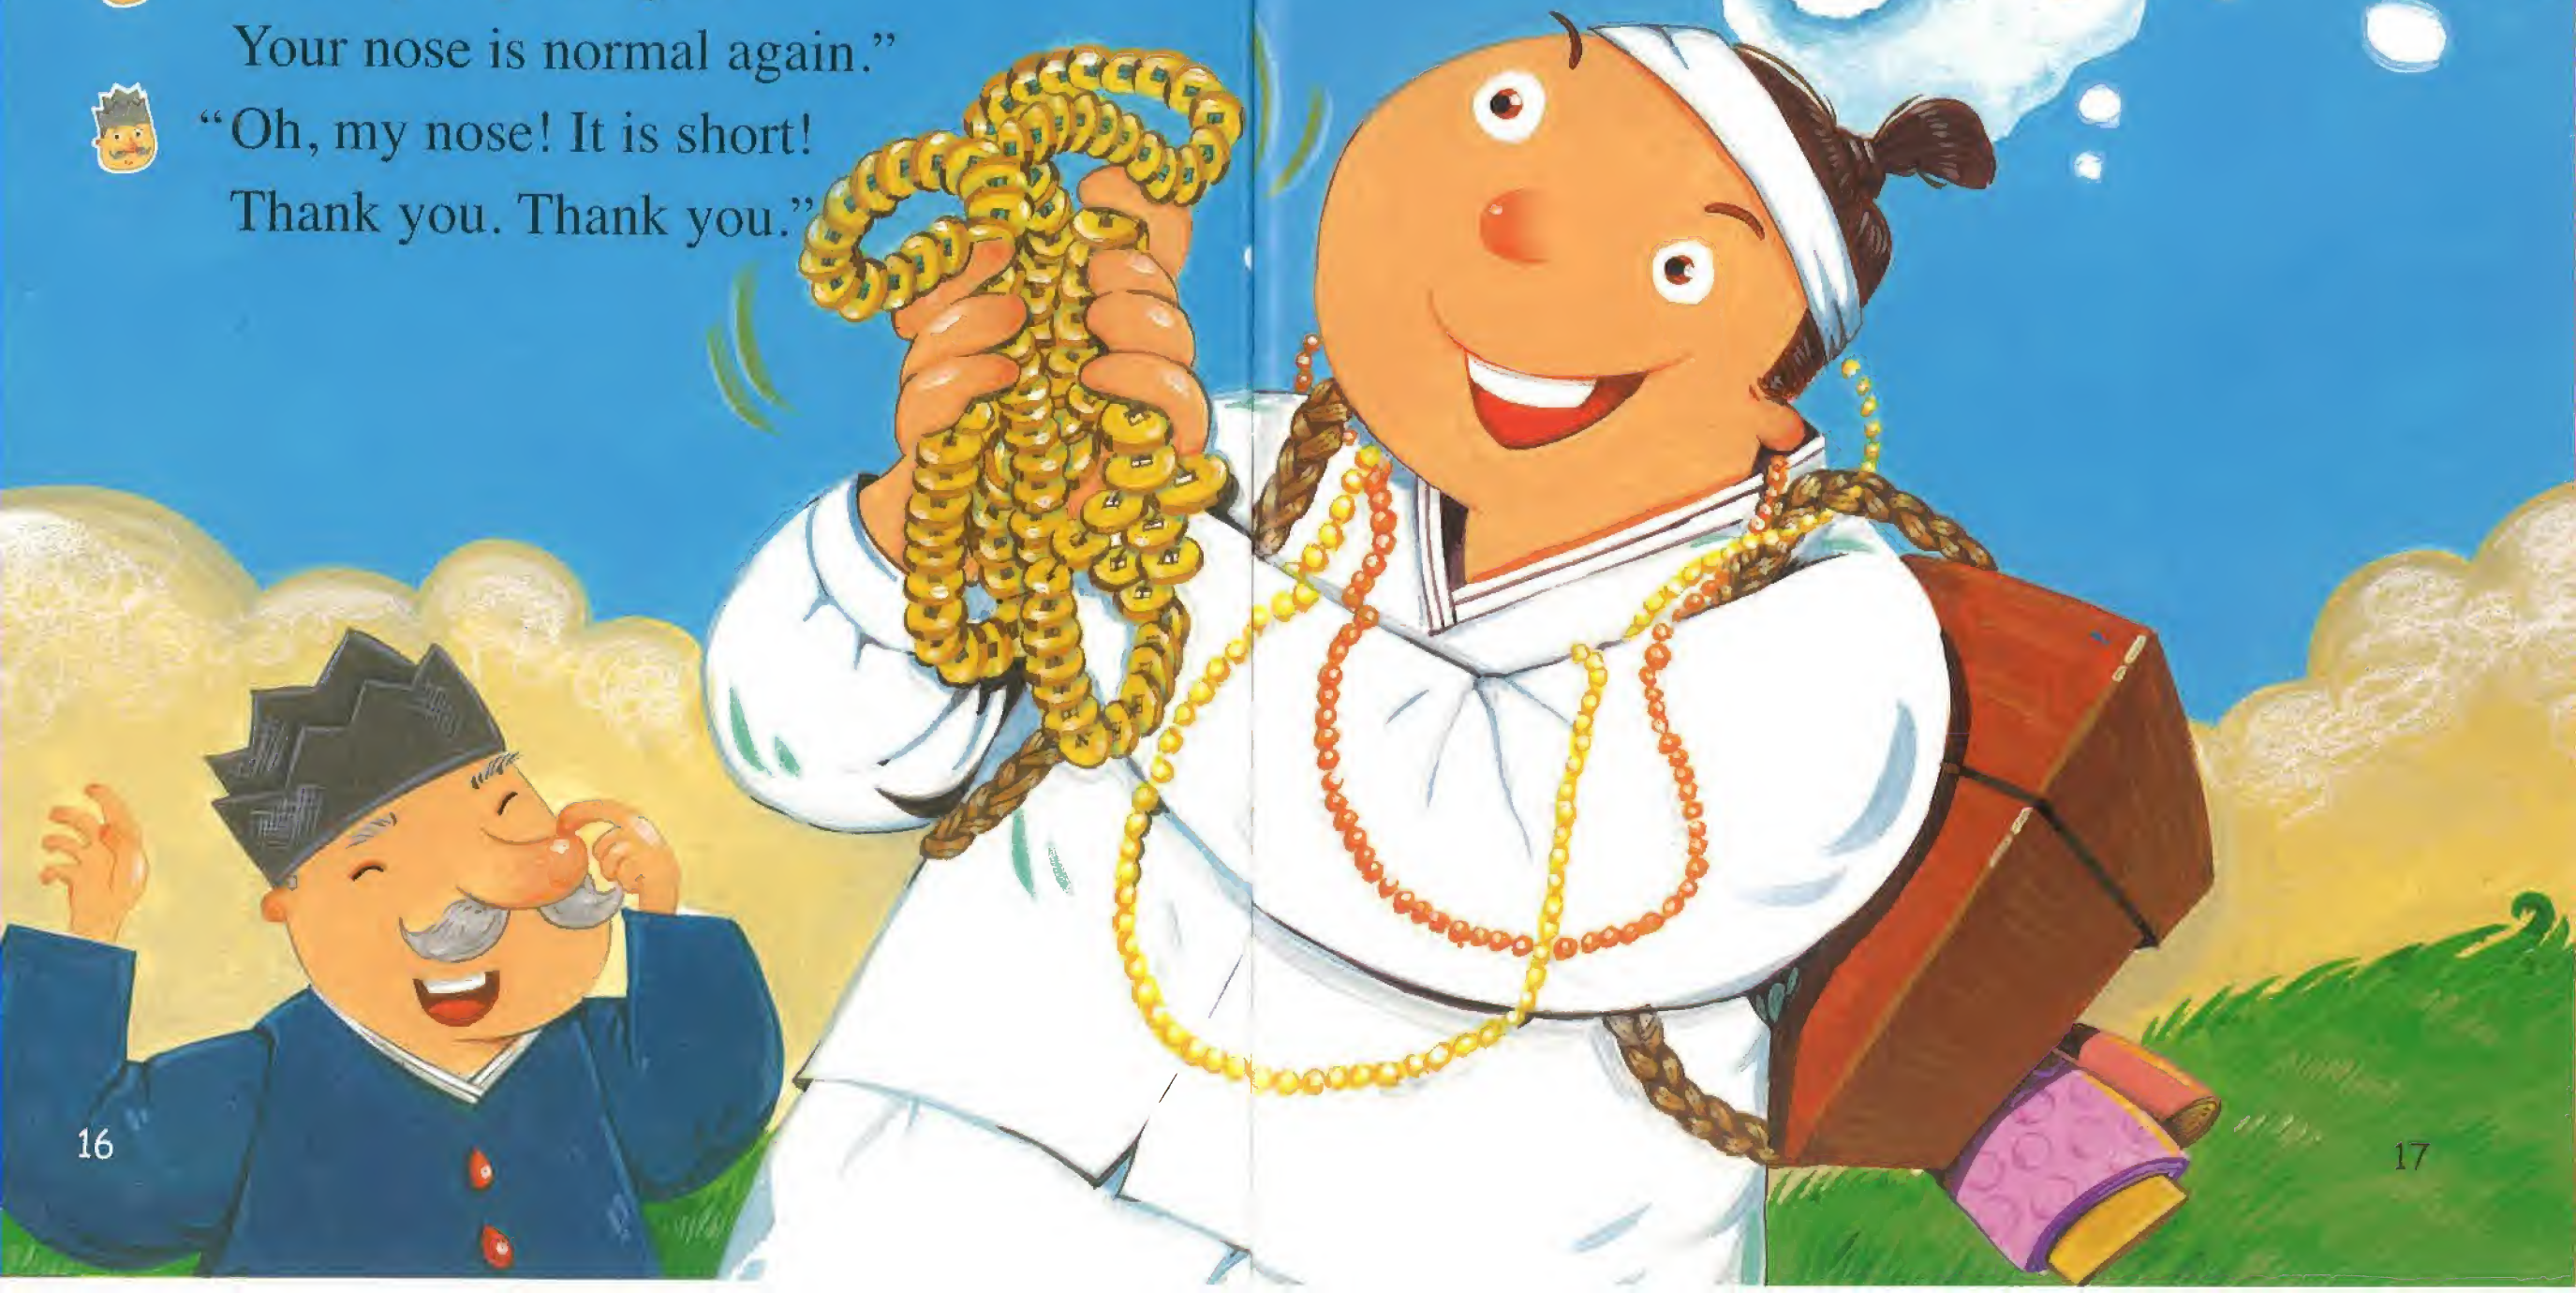

Your nose is normal again."

"Oh, my nose! It is short!

Thank you. Thank you."

The rich man gave Mr. Kim half of his fortune.
So Mr. Kim became rich.

One day, Mr. Kim was lying down on the floor.

“How long can my nose grow?”

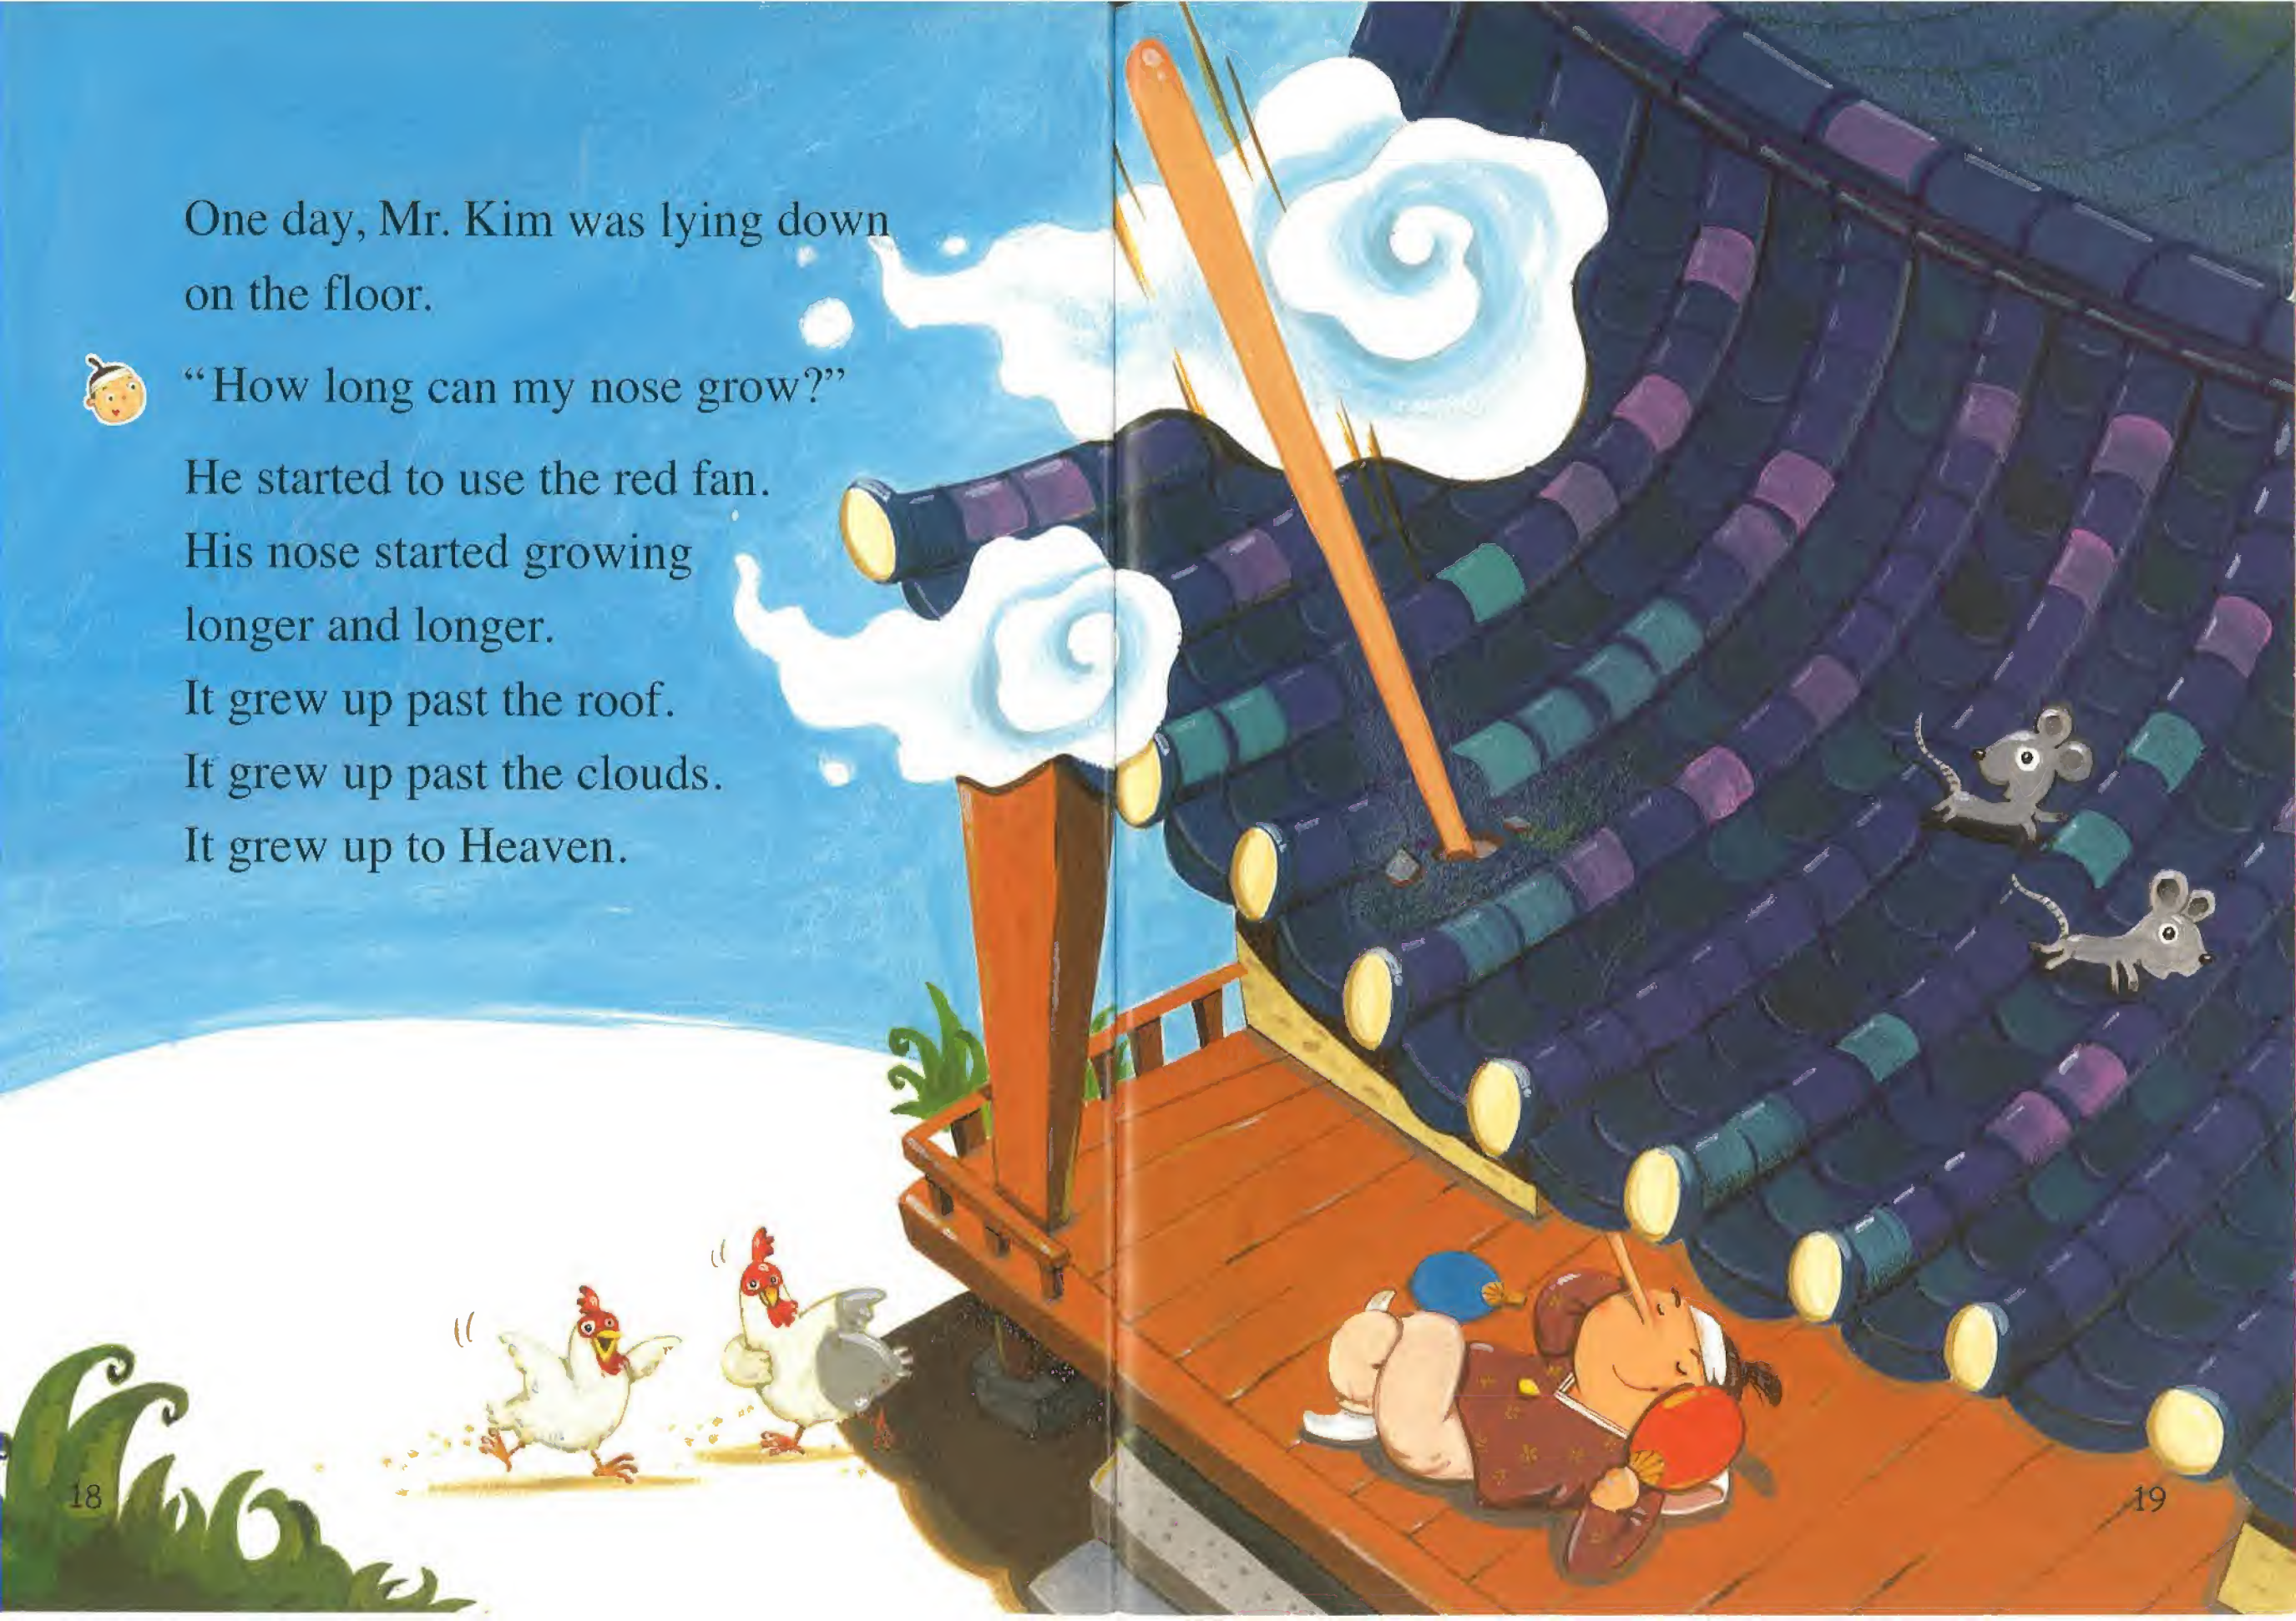

He started to use the red fan.

His nose started growing longer and longer.

It grew up past the roof.

It grew up past the clouds.

It grew up to Heaven.

Mr. Kim's nose reached Heaven's kitchen.

A fairy was cooking in the kitchen. The fairy saw something moving between the firewood.

"What is that?"

She poked Mr. Kim's nose with a poker. Mr. Kim was surprised by the pain. He started to use the blue fan. Then his body started rising.

Mr. Kim rose past the roof.
He rose past the clouds.
He rose to Heaven.
Then the fairy pulled the poker out of his nose.

Mr. Kim started falling down.
He fell down and down.
Maybe he is still falling down now.
